Constitution Adopted by CoRep 29th December 2007, amended 14th July 2014, amended 7th April 2024

INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL ON SOCIAL WELFARE

CONSTITUTION

1. CONSTITUTION

1.1 The International Council on Social Welfare, hereafter referred to as “the Council”, is a global, non-governmental, non-political, non-sectarian and non-profit organisation which represents a wide range of national and international member organisations that seek to advance social justice, social welfare, social work and social development.

2. OBJECTS

2.1 The objects of the Council are to:

2.1(a) Promote forms of social and economic development which aim to reduce poverty, hardship and vulnerability, especially amongst disadvantaged people;

2.1(b) Strive for recognition and realisation of fundamental rights to employment, income, food, shelter, education, health care and security;

2.1(c) Promote equality of opportunity, freedom of expression, freedom of association, participation and access to human services and oppose discrimination;

2.1(d) Promote policies and programmes which strike an appropriate balance between social and economic goals and which respect cultural diversity;

2.1 (e) Strengthen civil society throughout the world to achieve these objects;

2.1(f) Seek implementation of these objects by governments, international organisations and non-governmental agencies in cooperation with its network of Member Organisations.

3. MAIN ORGANS

- 3.1 The main organs of the Council are:
 - 3.1(a) The General Assembly;
 - 3.1(b) The Supervisory and Advisory Board, hereafter referred to as "The Board";
 - 3.1(c) The Management Committee;
 - 3.1(d) Regional General Assemblies;
 - 3.1(e) Regional Executive Committees.

4. MEMBERSHIP

- 4.1 Membership of the Council shall be in the following categories:
 - 4.1(a) National Member Organisations (Category A);
 - 4.1(b) International Member Organisations (Category B);
 - 4.1(c) Other Member Organisations (Category C);
 - 4.1(d) Associate Member Organisations (Category D);
 - 4.1(e) Individual Members (Category E)
- 4.2 On application the Management Committee shall admit into membership organisations that meet the requirements of the Constitution, By-laws and guidelines approved by the Board.

5. NATIONAL MEMBER ORGANISATIONS

- 5.1 A National Member Organisation shall have a broadly based membership of organisations which seek to enhance social justice, social welfare, social work and social development in that country.
- 5.2 There can be only one National Member Organisation in each country unless the Management Committee decides otherwise.
- 5.3 A National Member Organisation can be established especially for the purpose of Council membership.

- 5.4 In any country where there is no National Member Organisation, the Management Committee can admit one organisation as a Member Organisation with the same rights and obligations as a National Member Organisation until such time as a National Member Organisation is admitted.
- 5.5 Each National Member Organisation is entitled to appoint two delegates to the General Assembly and is entitled to exercise two votes at General Assembly meetings.

6. INTERNATIONAL MEMBER ORGANISATIONS

- 6.1 An international organisation is eligible for Council membership if it is an international non-governmental organisation which seeks to enhance social justice, social welfare, social work and social development.
- 6.2 An International Member Organisation retains its full autonomy and full rights in its relationships with various organs of the United Nations and other inter-governmental bodies.
- 6.3 Each International Member Organisation is entitled to appoint one delegate to the General Assembly and is entitled to exercise one vote at General Assembly meetings.
